Cockpit

A functional cockpit with inbuilt seating that can be extended when the engine is tilted down. Features a side boarding gate to starboard and extended bathing platforms for ease of access. Good stowage is available underneath the seating and cockpit sole. The wide walkaround side deck includes a helm door to starboard for bow'to'stern access.

Wheelhouse / Saloon

The helm station is comfortably located to starboard, equipped with engine controls, a control panel, and space for navigation equipment. The helm seat can be adjusted for sitting or standing positions. Opposite to port in the saloon is the dinette with a removable table; the forward seat can be repositioned to face forward for a co'pilot. The saloon table can also serve as an infill to create an additional double berth. Twin opening sky hatches provide extra light and feature built'in blinds/insect screens.

Galley

Located to starboard behind the helm seat, the compact galley includes a stainless steel sink with pressurised H&C water, a 2'burner gas hob, a front opening refrigerator and a 230v microwave.

Master Cabin

The forward cabin features a large 2m long island double berth with ample storage underneath. This cabin includes optional upgraded storage lockers overhead and benefits from abundant natural light from the hull windows, skylight, and deck hatch, which also provides ventilation.

Second Cabin

The second cabin is situated on the port side, offering a generous sleeping area with good natural light from the porthole and skylight, and includes a seat. Additional storage is available under the berth as well as a hanging cupboard.

Heads

The marine toilet is located on the lower level in front of the helm station. This compartment includes a marine toilet, sink, and a pull'out shower with a shower pump.
